

Name _____

Hour ____

Bill Nye: Digestion

1. You are what you _____.
2. Where do we get the energy/fuel or chemicals we need to keep going?
3. Our body combines the chemicals we eat with _____ to release energy.
4. What fuels the Steam Car of Science?
5. Food is _____.
6. Name two healthy foods in the "Healthy Foods" truck.
7. What does Bill get to drink with his lunch at the diner?
8. What is found in the peanut that causes it to burn?
9. What you get hungry, your stomach muscles _____, to let you know it's time to put some food in it to digest.

10. How often do you grow brand new stomach lining?
11. How long is the small intestine?
12. How long is the large intestine?

13. Fat feels really _____, like butter.

14. Name two veggies that are grown in the community garden in the “Check It Out” segment.

15. The food we eat is pushed by muscles. This is called _____. Far out!

16. How much saliva does the average person make in one day?

17. Our small intestine absorbs chemicals in food like a _____ soaks up water.

18. What does the “Way Cool Scientist” study?

19. What is the type of beans served with tacos?

20. Waste is what's _____ after your body extracts the nutrients from the food we eat!

21. All that talk about food has made Bill _____ at the end of the show!