Where The Red Fern Grows

Chptr 17

- 1. What dangers could possibly await the hunters in a storm?
What makes the storm dangerous?
- 2. Billy once again shows his steadfast determination in this chapter. In what way does Billy show that he is more of a man than all the men he's hunting with?
- 3. What happens to Grandpa in this chapter?
- 4. What mistake does Billy make in this chapter that puts his dogs in grave danger?
- 5. What does "bawling treed" mean?
- 6. How does Billy care for his grandpa?
- 7. As we've discussed, Wilson Rawls put this story together using a "highs and lows" or an "up down up down" kind of pattern. Briefly summarize the highs and lows of chapter 17.
