Answers must be in the form of complete sentences with a subject and a verb. Restate the question within the answer. Sentences start with a capital letter and end with punctuation. Avoid the use of a pronoun until you have used the antecedent.

1. Give two examples of the literary device PERSONIFICATION in the first two paragraphs of the chapter.
2. What evidence do we have that the whole camp was concerned about the lost hunters?
3. What happened to Billy when Mr. Benson said "Those two hounds," he said. "I found them. They're frozen solid."?
4. Why did Billy's dogs run in circles around the tree all night?
5. When the men are all standing around talking about how Billy's dogs stayed with the coon all through the freezing blizzard, Mr. Kyle says, "It's a shame that people all over the world can't have that kind of love in their hearts," he said. "There would be no wars, slaughter, or murder; no greed or selfishness. It would be the kind of world that God wants us to have; a wonderful world." But then in the next moment the scene is Billy's dogs violently killing another raccoon like they have a hundred times before. Explain if Billy's dogs exhibit characteristics like murder, war and slaughter. Didn't Billy's dogs try to murder 'Ol Blue? Don't they slaughter raccoons every night? Will humans ever have peace?
6. What exactly did Billy Win, and what did he do with all his prizes. When an argument broke out between the girls, how was it solved?
7. Momma is acting weird. What do you think she had prayed for?
