

Name

Date

Connect to Writing

Old Yeller
Grammar: Connect to Writing

Direct Objects and the Same Verb

The bear ate some berries. The bear ate a fish.

Combined Sentence with Compound Direct Object

The bear ate some berries and a fish.

Direct Objects and the Same Verb

I could plant tomatoes. I could plant corn. I could plant lettuce.

Combined Sentence with Compound Direct Object

I could plant tomatoes, corn, or lettuce.

Activity Combine each set of sentences to form one sentence that includes all the direct objects.

1. Papa rode the big red stallion. Papa rode the bay mare. Papa rode the palomino.
2. Mama made quilts for our beds. She made cloth for our curtains. She made soap for our baths.
3. When we were in the wagon train, we saw hawks circling. We saw mountain lions watching. We saw deer running.
4. I want fried chicken for supper. I want corn for supper.
5. While walking, don't disturb birds' nests. Don't disturb other wildlife.