A Package for Mrs. Jewls

What Was He Thinking?

When a story character tells a story, we only know what he or she is thinking and feeling. When a narrator tells a story, the readers get to know what all the characters are thinking and feeling, even if the other characters do not know it.

Read page 22. Look for information about what Louis is thinking or feeling. Write his thoughts in the thought bubble. Start with I, like you are Louis. Remember, other characters may not know what he is thinking!

Think about the information in the thought bubble. How does this information help you understand the plot of the story?
