

Subject Pronouns

Dangerous Crossing
 Grammar: Subject and Object Pronouns

A pronoun is a word that takes the place of a noun. A subject pronoun performs the action of the verb in a sentence.

subject pronoun

singular plural

I	we
you	you
he, she, it	they

Thinking Questions

Who or what is the subject of the sentence?

What word can you replace the subject with?

Jane read her history text. She read her history text.

Ed and Mark studied for the test. They studied for the test.

1–5. Underline the subject and circle the verb in each sentence. Replace the noun(s) with a subject pronoun.

- Ken, Lee, and Martha want to write a play about the Revolutionary War.
- Ken begins researching the topic.
- The play takes many weeks to plan.
- Harry builds the sets for the play.
- The story focuses on the ride of Paul Revere.

6–10. Underline the correct subject pronoun(s) in each sentence.

- (They, Them) are changing the rehearsal schedule.
- (We, You) would like to hear your opinion.
- (You, I) were just voted director of the play.
- Mark and (me, I) will make the costumes.
- However, (he, him) and (I, me) will ask others to help.