

Name _____

Date _____

Object Pronouns

Dangerous Crossing

Grammar: Subject and
Object Pronouns

A pronoun is a word that takes the place of a noun. An object pronoun takes the place of a noun used after an action verb or after a word such as to, for, with, in, or out.

singular object pronouns: me, you, him, her, it

plural object pronouns: us, you, them

Thinking Question

Whom or what is receiving the action of the sentence?

History is easy for Liam. History is easy for him.

Lars went with Mike and Aiden. Lars went with them.

Activity Read each sentence pair. Put an (X) on the blank by the sentence with the correct object pronoun.

1. Ken wanted me to play Paul Revere.
Ken wanted I to play Paul Revere.
2. He offered parts in the play to he and she.
He offered parts in the play to him and her.
3. Martha emailed copies of the script to we.
Martha emailed copies of the script to us.
4. It was a good way for them to study history.
It was a good way for they to study history.
5. Sarah didn't like the way the costume fit she.
Sarah didn't like the way the costume fit her.
6. The director called they on the phone.
The director called them on the phone.
7. My parents applauded loudly for I.
My parents applauded loudly for me.