

Name

Date

The Case of the Missing Deer
Independent Reading

The Case of the Missing Deer

Write an Advice Column

In The Case of the Missing Deer, Blake uses inferences to crack this case. By making inferences, he is able to draw a conclusion about the deer by his family's cabin.

Reread pages 54–56. In Blake's investigator notebook, write four clues that lead him to infer what was keeping the deer away.